

(Nehemiah 2:18) ...So they began the good work.

(Nehemiah 1:2-3) Hanani, one of my brothers, came to visit me with some other men who had just arrived from Judah. I asked them about the Jews who had returned there from captivity and about how things were going in Jerusalem. They said to me, "Things are not going well for those who returned to the province of Judah. They are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem has been torn down, and the gates have been destroyed by fire."

WHEN YOU'VE HAD ENOUGH, HERE'S WHAT YOU DO

1. _____ to God.

(Nehemiah 1:4) When I heard this, I sat down and wept...

2. Pray and _____.

(Nehemiah 1:4) ...In fact, for days I mourned, fasted, and prayed to the God of heaven.

(Nehemiah 1:5-7) "O Lord, God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps his covenant of unending love with those who love him and obey his commands, listen to my prayer! Look down and see me praying night and day for your people Israel. I confess that we have sinned against you. Yes, even my own family and I have sinned! We have sinned terribly by not obeying the commands, decrees, and regulations that you gave us through your servant Moses.

(Nehemiah 1:11) O Lord, please hear my prayer! Listen to the prayers of those of us who delight in honoring you. Please grant me success today by making the king favorable to me. Put it into his heart to be kind to me."

3. Do _____ part.

(Nehemiah 2:3-5 MSG) I said, "Long live the king! And why shouldn't I be depressed when the city, the city where all my family is buried, is in ruins and the city gates have been reduced to cinders?" The king then asked me, "So what do you want?" Praying under my breath to the God-of-Heaven, I said, "If it please the king, and if the king thinks well of me, send me to Judah, to the city where my family is buried, so that I can rebuild it."
