

(Luke 16:9-13 NKJ) "And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by unrighteous mammon, that when you fail, they may receive you into an everlasting home. He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much. Therefore if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if you have not been faithful in what is another man's, who will give you what is your own? "No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."

1. Exposing the _____.

2. Explaining the _____.

(1 Timothy 6:10) For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. And some people, craving money, have wandered from the true faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows.

(Luke 16:9 NKJ) And I say to you, make friends for yourselves by unrighteous mammon, that when you fail, they may receive you into an everlasting home.

3. Exercising the _____.

(Luke 16:10-12 NKJ) "If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones. But if you are dishonest in little things, you won't be honest with greater responsibilities. And if you are untrustworthy about worldly wealth, who will trust you with the true riches of heaven And if you are not faithful with other people's things, why should you be trusted with things of your own?"

> If you can handle _____,
God will give you _____.
